

MAVIS DAVEY

We continue #SpeakOut2016 the Diocese of Truro initiative with Mavis Davey's faith story:

"My loving Heavenly Father, there is so much I have to say. Thank you for your forgiveness and mercy and for your Son Jesus. I'm very humbled at the way you have worked in my life and I pray that all I do and have done will bring glory and honour to your Name.

You know, Father, that it hasn't always been an easy walk with you. You have called me to do things that I would never have volunteered to do but I have hung on to your many wonderful promises:

"I can do all things in Him who strengthens me."

"Don't be afraid; I am with you."

"I have called you by name."

"I have redeemed you."

"Though you go through deep waters you will not drown."

"Though you go through the fire you will not burn up."

Thank you Father for the loving family and extended family that you have given me. Thank you for my loving church families and loving friends. Above all, thank you for the loving arms of Jesus surrounding me, especially at this time.

With a grateful and loving heart, your daughter, Mavis."
