

MERVYN KINSMAN

It is the turn of Mervyn Kinsman to tell his faith story as part of #SpeakOut2016 with the Diocese of Truro.

“My walk with JESUS began when Wendy and I were invited by Roy and Shirley Wilton to St. Martin’s Church in the late 80s. We met the Rev. Derek Davey, who was a wonderful blessing!!

In those days I thought everyone who went to church was a Christian, and all went to heaven! Later we were invited to Pete and Vanda's house group. It was when we were at one of the meetings, I realised I was not a Christian! Then on a Saint’s Alive course led by Malcolm Griffiths and Fay Barrett, I asked JESUS into my life. That was March 31st 1994. In October 2001, I was baptised at Millendreath indoor pool!

Looking back over the last 22 years, I have had a fantastic journey with JESUS my SAVIOUR!! The HOLY SPIRIT (who is a real person), has lead me down some amazing roads!!

It would be wonderful if I could meet with some of those who shared that amazing journey with me. GOD really blessed me with lots of loving people along the way!

Now I am a child of the most amazing one and only true living God!!! "My PAPA".

I give GOD all the glory!!”
